

City Living. A Mini-Workshop on the Philosophy of the City

21.06.2022, Colloquium of the Institute of Philosophy, Room: A 112, Lange Laube 6

Hybrid event – online participation is warmly welcome! (see information below)

The workshop is organized as an author-meets-critics-event based on Quill R. Kukla's book City Living. How Urban Dwellers and Urban Spaces Make One Another (OUP 2021).

Program (Central European Summer Time)

16.15	Welcome
16.20	Quill R. Kukla (Georgetown Univ./LUH): City Living. An Introduction
16.50	Tea Lobo (Collegium Helveticum, Zurich): Shaping Lifeforms in Urban Ecologies
17.20	Small Break
17.30	Johannes Müller-Salo (LUH): Urban Justice – Top-Down or Bottom-Up?
18.00	Sanna Lehtinen (Aalto University, Helsinki): Urban Aesthetics and Third Places
18.30	Final Discussion
19.00	End

If you want to participate online, please send a short e-mail to Johannes Müller-Salo (johannes.mueller-salo@philos.uni-hannover.de). You'll receive then a personalized link to join the meeting!